

SPECIAL PEOPLE

Most of you are aware that we run mainly with volunteer assistance – and during this turbulent period our core of volunteers have been amazing. Special kudos goes out to the following:

The Boat Donations & Sales team of Clif Ames and Richard Brewer
The Boat Shop crew under the direction of Pete Kauneckas
Buildings & Grounds with work done by Derek Tomek, Gordon Burgess, Wray Dudley, and others
Claud W. Somers crew under the direction of Gerhard Straub
Curatorial Committee under the direction of Austin Schmidt
 In January and February community volunteers organized the research library using the old Dewey Decimal System
 Continued work on inventorying the artifacts
Docents under the direction of Nadine Leisz
Education Committee under the direction of Kim Schmidt
 Shore Front Garden team
 School-aged children’s tours
Elva C crew under the direction of George Butler
Exhibit team with Lee, Shelby Smithart, Hailey Wallace
 Research assistance from Austin Schmidt, Maddie Scholes
 B&H artifact acquisition with Lydia Haynie and Becky Haynie
Festival Halle under the direction of Henry Nessul
Foggy River crew under the direction of Bill Small
Gift Shop team of Ernestine Luttrell, John Luttrell, Linda Jett, Jeri Brewer
Independence Day Festivities
 5K Race under the direction of Martha Rogers
 Fireworks under the direction of Linda Jett, with sponsorship by Omega Protein
 Skip McPherson and his crew for putting up the American flags on Main Street
Long Range Planning/Strategic Planning Committee under the direction of Tom Osborne
Membership committee under the direction of Harry Towne
Mistletoe & Mimosas team under the direction of Maureen Gillmer
Model Shop team under the direction of Bob Dillon
Starry Banner, Linda Nessul editor
Walker House with Gloria Cooper, Shelby Smithart, Hailey Wallace

... and others like chairs of event committees that had to make the hard decisions to cancel popular events, board members, etc.

For a small museum that seemed “Inactive” during the worst of COVID-19 pandemic, we really were hard at work!!
